Description:

Luxury fashion faux fur with a very thick, dense pile measuring between 1 cm to 1.3 cm in height. This thick pile is achieved by creating a bed of densely packed fibres which stand upright, along with fibres which are ever so slightly longer which naturally fall slightly to one side. This produces a short yet thick looking faux fur, ready for fashion wear, toys or interiors.

Soft enough to lounge on, this luxury faux fur would feel fantastic made into throw cushions to add a splash of colour and cosieness to a room. Available in bright red, royal blue, canary yellow and olive green , if you are looking for neutral shades , check out our Real Look Thick Pile Fur.
